

Contact:

Jennifer Bowker
Manager of Communications
312.695.0502
j-bowker@northwestern.edu

Conversations About Colorectal Cancer Held on Sat. Feb. 16, 2008
Lurie Cancer Center and Colon Care Alliance Host Free Community Education Program

The Robert H. Lurie Comprehensive Cancer Center of Northwestern University and the Colon Cancer Alliance will host Conversations about Colorectal Cancer: Finding HOPE (Healing, Options, Peer Support, Education) in Your Community on Saturday, February 16, from 9:00 a.m. – 1:15 p.m. in the 3rd floor conference center of Northwestern Memorial Hospital's Feinberg Pavilion, 251 E. Huron, Chicago.

Lurie Cancer Center doctors Mary Mulcahy, MD, Amy Halverson, MD, and Riad Salem, MD, will present information regarding treatment advances in oncology, surgery and interventional radiology. This free seminar, intended for people coping with any stage of colorectal cancer, caregivers and friends, will also provide a forum for survivors and caregivers to share information and experiences. Healthcare professionals are also encouraged to attend.

For more information or to register, contact 877.422.2030 or www.ccalliance.org.